Strong Finish to 2017 has Bulls Excited for 2018

The University at Buffalo football team is eager to hit the gridiron and build on a successful finish to the 2017 campaign. The Bulls won the final three games of the season to finish 2017 6-6 and gain bowl eligibility for just the third time as an FBS program. Even the Bulls loses were by a close margin, losing six games by a combined 29 points, with their worst loss by only 10 points.

Buffalo returns eight starters to an offense that rolled up a school-record 5,183 yards of total offense on the season and led the Mid-American Conference in passing offense, averaging 291 yards per game. A key component returning to the high-octain offense is Anthony Johnson. The senior wide receiver is the top returning receiver in the nation after averaging 113 receiving yards per game and 14 touchdowns in 2017.

The Bulls will feature equal fire power on the defensive side of the ball. Senior middle linebacker Khalil Hodge ranked second in the nation in tackles with an FBS-era school-record 154 stops in 2017. In just two seasons with the Bulls, the California native has already totaled an astounding 277 tackles, more than any other player in college football over the past two seasons.

Here is a position-by-position breakdown as the Bulls enter the 2018 campaign.

QUARTERBACK

Due to injuries, the Bulls were forced to start three different quarterbacks in 2017. However, it did prove UB has built depth at that position as two of the three signal-callers return in 2018.

Junior Tyree Jackson will likely return to his starting role in 2018. The Bulls' dual-threat quarterback started eight games in 2017 and threw for 2,096 yards and 12 touchdowns and rushed for 197 yards and four more scores. After suffering an injury in week four and missing the next four games, he returned to put up huge numbers over the final four games of the season. Jackson averaged 341 yards passing and threw nine touchdowns to help the Bulls win three of their final four games.

Jackson was the named to the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback preseason wathlist - the first UB quarterback to earn the honor.

Kyle Vantrease also started a game as a true freshman in 2017. The Stow, OH native threw for 355 yards and two touchdowns on the season.

Dominic Johnson, a big-framed, quarterback at 6-5, 230, continues to develop as a sophomore and will add depth at the position.

Matt Myers, the 2017 Western New York Player of the Year, will join the team as well.

RUNNING BACK

Heading into the 2017 campaign, the Bulls figured Johnathan Hawkins would be their next starter. And he was for the first three games, until an injury forced him to miss the remainder of the season. A healthy Hawkins will compete for the starting job in 2018, but will do so with a pair of backs who got plenty of experience in his place in 2017.

One such back is junior Emmanuel Reed who had a breakout season in 2017 after playing sparingly in 2016. Reed started the final nine games of the season in 2017 and led the Bulls in rushing with 840 yards and nine touchdowns on the year. Reed is on the preseason watch list for the Doak Walker Award.

Theo Anderson was a solid backup to Reed and proved to be a nice compliment with his powerful running style. The sophomore back ranked second on the team in rushing with 419 yards and two touchdowns in 2017.

Kevin Marks is a talented young back who redshirted as a freshman last season. He had a strong spring and should challenge for playing time.

JACKSON

WIDE RECEIVER

One luxury Buffalo has is returning arguably one of the top wide receivers in the nation in Anthony Johnson. The senior wideout posted eye-popping numbers in 2017 – his first season seeing action with the Bulls. Johnson had 76 receptions for 1,356 yards and 14 touchdowns in 2017. He led the MAC and ranked second in the nation in receiving yards per game (113.0) and his 14 receiving touchdowns on the season were a single-season school record. In addition, his 1,356 receiving yards were second in school history for a single season.

K.J. Osborn also had a breakout season in 2017. The junior receiver registered 35 catches for 493 yards and four touchdowns on the year – easily the best numbers of his career.

Antonio Nunn has developed into a legitimate deep threat for the Bulls. The sophomore had 15 catches for 301 yards in 2017, including a 48-yard touchdown catch at Army, plus two other 40+ yard grabs.

The Bulls have a number of young receivers waiting in the wings looking to have their own breakout seasons. A few names include sophomore Tito Overton and redshirt-freshmen Charlie Jones, Isaiah King and Rodney Scott III.

Newcomer George Rushing, a graduate transfer from Wisconsin and freshman LeMaro Smith will add depth to an already deep receiving corps.

TIGHT END

For the first time since 2014, the Bulls didn't have an All-MAC tight end, but the Bulls were still very effective at that position and look to be even stronger in 2018.

Junior Tyler Mabry started all 12 games at tight end in 2017 and will likely return to the starting role in 2018. He led all UB tight ends in receiving with 24 receptions for 242 yards and a touchdown last year and registered a catch in 11 of 12 games.

Sophomore Zac Lefebvre played in the first eight games of 2017 and made a start before missing the final four games with an injury. He had five receptions for 51 yards and a touchdown on the season.

Julien Bourassa redshirted as a freshman in 2017, but the 6-6 tight end should add depth at the position in 2018.

OFFENSIVE LINE

The offensive line has been a strength of the Buffalo offense since Leipold's arrival and it looks like it will continue to be a strength in 2018.

The line is anchored by fourth-year starting center James O'Hagan. The UB senior and team captain has started all 36 games of the previous three seasons. He is a two-time All-MAC selection, earning third-team honors in both 2016 and 2017.

Junior Evin Ksiezarczyk earned the starting left tackle job in preseason camp prior to the 2017 season and did an outstanding job for the Bulls, starting all 12 games. He will likely return to his starting role in 2018.

The third returning starter is guard Tomas Jack-Kurdyla. The junior has been a starter since midway through his true freshman campaign in 2016.

While the Bulls lost a pair of starters to graduation, a number of returning offensive linemen were worked into the rotation in 2017 giving them valuable playing experience.

Jacquis Webb is one of those returners who actually started the first four games at right tackle for the Bulls. Paul Nosworthy, and Kayode Awosika also saw time last season and should challenge for starting roles.

JOHNSON

HARRIS

DEFENSIVE LINE

The defensive line will be led by All-MAC defensive end Chuck Harris who really blossomed in 2017 and will likely only get better in 2018. Harris ranked third on the team in tackles with 73 and second on the team with seven tackles for loss and four sacks in 2017.

Another steady starter on the defensive line is tackle Justin Brandon. Like Harris, Brandon is also a senior who is coming off the best season of his career. The 6-1, 305-pounder had 36 tackles, including four tackles for loss last season for a much improved rush defense.

The Bulls will have to replace a pair of starters, including All-MAC defensive end Demone Harris. One candidate who may earn the job is sophomore Malcolm Koonce who played a reserve role as a true freshman a season ago. Koonce had 16 tackles and a sack in 2017.

Senior Myles Nicholas should also get a crack at the job. The Rochester native played in all 12 games in 2017 and had 20 tackles and a tackle for loss.

Cal transfer Kennedy Emesibe is in his second season with the Bulls. The senior defensive end played in six games last year and registered a sack.

Redshirt-freshmen Jaylin Nolden and Frendy Darelus as well as UMass-transfer Taylor Riggins will also help solidify the defensive end spot.

At tackle, the Bulls got a nice surprise with the development of Chibueze Onwuka. The former walk-on ended up appearing in 11 games and made a start in 2017.

Veteran defensive tackle Jake Khoury will also add depth at the tackle spot after playing in 21 career games. Christian Gonzalez and Wesley Scott will also be in the mix at defensive tackle.

Ledarius Mack has made the move from linebacker to defensive end.

The coaching staff made a point to focus on the defense line during the recruiting process and three new Bulls will join the Bulls for spring ball. Newcomers to the defensive line include DeShondrick Foxworth, Atunaisa Vainikolo and Eddie Wilson.

LINEBACKERS

The linebacker unit will once again be led by senior Khalil Hodge. The City College of San Francisco transfer has been a revelation since his arrival prior to the 2016 season. The two-time All-MAC linebacker followed up his 123-tackle performance in 2016, by piling up 154 stops in 2017 to lead the MAC and rank second in the nation.

Jordan Collier is another veteran of the unit who started 10 games a season ago. The senior outside linebacker ranked fifth on the team in tackles with 66, including 41 solo stops.

With the graduation for Jarrett Franklin and Ishmael Hargrove, the Bulls will need to replace the other outside linebacker spot. One candidate for the job is Kadofi Wright. The sophomore linebacker appeared in all 12 games and made a start in 2017. He had 17 tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss and a sack on the season.

Justin Mulbah, who missed last season with an injury, played in six games as a true freshman in 2016. Ja'Varius Harrison could also challenge for the starting job after playing in 10 games last season.

Matt Otwinowski has been a solid backup for Hodge at middle linebacker over the last two seasons. The Bulls' junior linebacker has played in all 24 career games and has 47 tackles.

After redshirting last season, Tim Terry, Jr. should compete for playing time.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The cornerback position is one of the strengths of this Buffalo team. Led by senior Cameron Lewis, it's a veteran unit. After starting all 12 games in 2016, Lewis battled injuries in 2017 and only played in seven games. However, he made an impact in those seven games with 34 tackles, three forced fumbles an interception and four pass breakups last year.

Fellow senior Brandon Williams started eight games at cornerback last season. He had 43 tackles, an interception and four pass breakups on the year.

Another senior, Tatum Slack, started nine games in 2017 and led the team with nine pass breakups. The Upland, CA native added 29 tackles and a tackle for loss on the year.

Devon Russell, yet another senior, appeared in 10 games and started three last season. He had 14 tackles and three pass breakups on the year.

Sophomore Roy Baker is a 6-2 cornerback who played in nine games in 2017. He had 11 tackles and a pass breakup on the year.

Wankeith Akin, Jr. and Aapri Washington, who both redshirted as freshmen last season, should also add depth to the position.

Unlike the cornerback position, the Bulls will have to replace their two starting safeties in Tim Roberts and Ryan Williamson.

Junior Dev Lamour has the most experience of the returners. Slowed by injuries last season, Lamour has seen action in 12 games and started once over his first two years.

Junior Jeremiah Dadeboe and sophomore Tyrone Hill continue to improve and could also challenge for a starting safety spots. Dadeboe and Hill played in 11 and four games, respectively, in 2017.

JUCO transfer Joey Banks joined the program in January from City College of San Francisco and will also likely be in the mix for a starting job.

Sophomore Ali Abbas, redshirt-freshman Dawun Hylton and freshman Cory Gross should also add depth.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Adam Mitcheson returns for a fourth season as Buffalo's starting kicker. The junior was 15-for-24 on field goal attempts and 37-of-40 on extra attempts in 2017.

With the graduation of Kyle DeWeen, the Bulls will have a new starting punter in 2018. The likely candidate will be Evan Finegan, an All-State punter from Michigan, who redshirted last season as a freshman.

HEAD COACH
LANCE LEIPOLD

FOURTH SEASON
13-23 at Buffalo • 122-29 Overall

Lance Leipold is in his fourth season as head coach of the Buffalo football team.

Leipold had his most successful season in 2017 – his third with the Bulls. He guided Buffalo to a 6-6 record and bowl eligibility for just the third time as an FBS program. The six wins were the third most in a season since the Bulls made the move to the FBS ranks in 1999.

The Bulls featured an explosive offense that ranked second in the Mid-American Conference, averaging 432 yards per game and led the MAC with 291 passing yards per outing. UB's 5,183 yards of total offense were the most in school history for a single season. The Bulls produced 20 plays of 45 yards or more and those 20 plays came from 10 different players.

Buffalo posted key wins against Conference USA Champion Florida Atlantic as well as a nine-win Ohio team. The Bulls finished the season with three straight wins for the first time as an FBS program. In addition, UB's six losses were by a total of 29 points, including two one-point losses and a three-point, seven-overtime loss.

In 2016, Leipold led a very young squad, featuring 42 new players. The Bulls were the fourth most inexperienced team in the nation. Buffalo earned impressive wins over Army (a bowl team) and Akron. Buffalo had four players named to the All-MAC team.

In 2015, his first with the Bulls, Leipold led UB to a 5-7 mark. He became the first UB head coach to win five games in his first season since Bob Deming went 6-3 in 1969.

Included in the Bulls five wins was a victory at Florida Atlantic - Buffalo's first non-conference road win since the 2009 season.The Bulls won three road games in 2015 - the most in UB's FBS era (since 1999).

The Bulls had five players named to the All-MAC football team in 2015, led by tight end Matt Weiser who was also named an Academic All-American – becoming the first UB football player in the modern era to earn the distinction.

Leipold was named the 25th head coach in the history of the Buffalo football program on December 1, 2014.

Leipold came to UB from Wisconsin-Whitewater where he compiled an astounding 109-6 record and won six Division III National Championships over his eight seasons. A six-time National Coach of the Year, Leipold reached 100 career victories faster than any other coach in NCAA history – at any level.

Leipold has gathered multiple honors from as many as five football-related organizations. He earned his sixth American Football Coaches Association Division III Coach of the Year award in 2014. He has won the award more times than any active coach at any level. He passed the late Joe Paterno, who was a five-time recipient of the award.

In his first season as head coach at Whitewater, The Warhawks went 14-1 and won the national title. He led the Warhawks back to the national championship game in 2008, but they lost to Mount Union, 31-26. Wisconsin-Whitewater went 15-0, winning the national championship in 2009, 2010 and 2011 and won 46 straight games over that span. Following a 7-3 season in 2012, UWW went a perfect 15-0 and won the national championship in 2013 and followed with another perfect 15-0 season and a national title in 2014.

In Division III, where athletic scholarships aren't a part of the game, Leipold was able to recruit top-notch talent to the campus in southeastern Wisconsin. During his tenure, running back Justin Beaver earned the Gagliardi Trophy as the top player in Division III. Brent Allen earned the Division III Rimington Award as the top center. Jeff Schebler was the first recipient of the Fred Mitchell Award, given to the top placekicker in Division II or III. Tailback Levell Coppage earned D3football.com Offensive Player of the Year accolades, and Cole Klotz was selected D3football.com Defensive Player of the Year. Defensive back Jared Kiesow was named an NCAA Elite 88 Award winner. The Warhawks have piled up 56 All-America honors under Leipold's tutelage.

A native of Jefferson, WI, Leipold began his coaching career at Wisconsin-Whitewater in 1987 as a quarterbacks coach and then wide receivers coach. He moved to the University of Wisconsin from 1991-93 as a graduate assistant and helped the Badgers to a Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl appearance in 1993.

As an assistant coach at Division II Nebraska-Omaha from 1994-2000, Leipold helped turn the Mavericks from a 1-10 team in 1994 into three-time North Central Conference champions during his tenure. After being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2000, he moved on to the University of Nebraska, where he served for three seasons under current Ohio head coach Frank Solich. He was on the same staff as former UB head coach Turner Gill. The Cornhuskers competed in the national championship game in 2001 and earned bowl bids in 2002 and 2003.

He returned to Nebraska-Omaha to serve as associate head coach and offensive coordinator from 2004-06. The Mavericks finished 8-3 and won the conference championship each of his three seasons.

Leipold is a 1987 graduate of Wisconsin-Whitewater where he was a standout quarterback for the Warhawks. He ranks second in school history in career pass attempts (647), fourth in yards (4,277), sixth in completions (303) and tied for 10th with 27 touchdowns. He was inducted into the Whitewater Hall of Fame in 2003. He was inducted into the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2018.

Leipold and his wife, Kelly, have a daughter, Lindsey, and a son, Landon.

Andy Kotelnicki

Offensive Coordinator/Running Backs
UW-River Falls '04
Fourth Season at Buffalo

Andy Kotelnicki is in fourth season as offensive coordinator. He also coached the running backs after servings as quarterbacks coach his first two seasons.

Buffalo's offense made significant progress under Kotelnicki in 2017. The Bulls ranked second in the Mid-American in total offense, averaging 432 yards per game. UB's 5,183 yards of total offense were the most in school history for a single season. Due to injuries, Buffalo was forced to start three different quarterbacks throughout the season and the Bulls still led the MAC in passing offense, averaging 291 yards per game.

Other notable numbers from the 2017 season included ranking sixth in the nation in most improved scoring offense; sixth in the nation in most improved passing offense; eighth in the nation in turnovers lost; third in the MAC in points per possession; second in the MAC in fewest 3-and-outs; third in MAC in total offense and first in the MAC in third down conversion percentage.

In his first season coaching running backs, Kotelnicki helped with the development of sophomore Emmanuel Reed who rushed for 840 yards and nine touchdowns in his first season as a starter.

In 2016, the Bulls had three offensive players named All-MAC, including tight end Mason Schreck (2nd team), running back Jordan Johnson (3rd team) and center James O'Hagan (3rd team). Redshirt-freshman quarterback Tyree Jackson threw for 1,772 yards - the most ever by a UB freshman quarterback. Jackson also became the first freshman quarterback to throw for 300 yards in a game (he did it twice).

In 2015, the Bulls averaged 249.5 passing yards and 136.9 rushing yards per game. Also the quarterbacks coach, Kotelnicki oversaw a passing game that had 283 pass completions – the second most in school history for a single season. The Bulls' 23.6 completions per game were the most ever.

Kotelnicki came to UB from Wisconsin-Whitewater where he had spent the previous two seasons as offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

At UWW, Kotelnicki led an offense that led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) in scoring offense (40.1), rushing offense (218.2) and passing offense (269.5) in 2014 en route to a perfect 15-0 season and the programs' sixth Stagg Bowl national championship in eight seasons.

The Warhawks featured one of the most efficient offensive attacks in the nation under Kotelnicki's leadership in 2013. Whitewater led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and ranked among the top five in the nation in first downs (311), interceptions allowed (1) and turnover margin (+2.3).

The Warhawks' offense also led the conference in red zone offense, converting scores on 85.9 percent of drives inside the 20-yard line, and set single-season team records in passes completed (312) and passing touchdowns (42) in 2013.

Prior to Whitewater, Kotelnicki served as offensive coordinator at the University of Mary, an NCAA Division II institution in Bismarck, N.D., for two seasons. In his first year as coordinator, the Marauders scored over 10 points per game more than the previous season and led the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference in scoring offense, total offense and passing efficiency. During his tenure, Kotelnicki mentored nine All-NSIC North Division honorees, the sixth 1,000-yard rusher in the school's history and an All-American wide receiver.

Kotelnicki spent six seasons as an assistant coach at UW-River Falls, including four as offensive coordinator, in 2003 and from 2006-10. The Falcons set 24 offensive school records during his second stint, and he was promoted to assistant head coach for the 2010 campaign.

Kotelnicki worked at Western Illinois University, where he coached tight ends, special teams and the offensive line, from 2004-06. He was also an assistant strength and conditioning coach from 2004-05 and the interim strength and conditioning coach in 2006.

After earning a bachelor's in exercise and sport science from UW-River Falls in 2004, Kotelnicki picked up a master's in kinesiology from Western Illinois in 2006. He is a member of the American Football Coaches Association and the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association.

Kotelnicki and his wife, Lindsey, have a son, Max, and daughter, Joy.

Brian Borland

Defensive Coordinator/Safeties
Morningside (IA) '85
Fourth Season at Buffalo

Brian Borland is in his fourth season as defensive coordinator and also serves as safeties coach.

Borland led a unit that ranked fifth in the Mid-American Conference in scoring defense (24.8) in 2017. Three UB defensive players were named All-MAC, including linebacker Khalil Hodge (first team) who ranked second in the nation in tackles with 154 – the most by a UB player in the Bulls' FBS era. Joining Hodge on the All-MAC team were defense ends Demone Harris (second team) and Chuck Harris (third team).

In 2016, Borland guided a defense that led the MAC and ranked 13th in the nation in pass defense, allowing 181.5 yards per game. Linebacker Khalil Hodge accumulated 123 tackles, the eighth most in school history for a single season, and was named All-MAC Second Team.

The Bulls were a very opportunistic defense in 2015. UB scored a school-record seven defensive touchdowns (by seven different players) to rank second in the nation.

Three members of his defense were named to the All-Mid-American Conference team in 2015. Linebacker Brandon Berry was named to the second team. Linebacker Okezie Alozie and cornerback Boise Ross were named to the third team. Ross broke the school record for passes defended in a season with 20 to rank fifth in the nation.

Borland came to UB from Wisconsin-Whitewater where he spent the previous 21 seasons. Since 2002, Borland served as the Warhawks defensive coordinator.

Borland began at UW-W in 1994, also serving as the defensive backs coach. He was announced as a 2015 Wisconsin Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame inductee.

Borland was named Division III Coordinator of the Year in 2013 by footballscoop.com after helping lead the Warhawks to the NCAA Division III national championship, the team's fifth in seven seasons. UW-Whitewater led the nation in scoring defense, allowing just 9.1 points per contest, and ranked No. 1 in the country in fumbles recovered (19) and turnovers forced (44).

From 2009-14, Borland's defenses led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and ranked among the top 20 in the nation in rushing defense, scoring defense and total defense. The Warhawks also led the league in pass efficiency from 2010-13.

Borland earned Wisconsin Collegiate Assistant Coach of the Year honors from the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association in both 2004 and 2006. In the 2009 season, Borland led the Warhawks to the fourth best scoring defense in Division III. In 2010, the Warhawks were ranked second in NCAA Division III in run defense. In 2011, Borland's rushing defense was ranked first in the WIAC.

From 1994-2002, Borland also coached track and field at UW-Whitewater. In 2000, he led the Whitewater women's track and field team to a fourth place finish at the NCAA Division III Outdoor Track and Field Championships. He earned NCAA D-III national coach of the year honors for his successful season.

Prior to Whitewater, Borland was the defensive coordinator for three years at Baker University (Kan.) from 1991-93, and at the University of Minnesota-Morris from 1989-90. He also was the head women's softball coach at Baker University and head track and field coach at the University of Minnesota-Morris. Borland's other stops include stints as a graduate assistant football coach at the University of Florida and at the University of Wisconsin. He also coached defensive backs at Arizona Western College.

Borland played his college football at Morningside (Iowa) College (1981-84) where he was a four-year letterwinner and three-year starter at defensive back, and a team captain.

In addition to his football coaching duties at UW-W, Borland taught in the HPRC Department.

He has a wife, Gayle, and two sons, Evan and Jaren.

Rob Ianello

Associated Head Coach/Wide Receivers
Catholic '87
Fourth Season at Buffalo

Rob Ianello is in his fourth season as associate head coach, recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach.

In 2017, he coached Buffalo wideout Anthony Johnson who had one of the finest seasons in school history. The junior receiver led the Mid-American Conference in receiving yards with 1,356 and touchdowns with 14, which was also a school record. Johnson, a first-team All-MAC selection, ranked second in the nation in receiving yards per game (113.0) and third in receiving touchdowns (14).

Buffalo's receivers flourished under Ianello in 2015. For the first time as an FBS program (since 1999) the Bulls had three players with 50 or more catches in a season. Matt Weiser had 63; Ron Willoughby had 61 and Marcus McGill had 50.

Ianello brought over 25 years of experience to UB and is recognized as one of the best recruiters in college football. He most recently spent three seasons on the Kansas football staff where he was the recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach.

Ianello was instrumental in helping bring the 25th-rated signing class to Kansas in 2013 according to The Sporting News. The Jayhawk class had two four-star prospects, including the top-rated JUCO prospect in the nation in defensive lineman Marquel Combs.

No stranger to the Mid-American Conference, Ianello served as head coach at Akron for the 2010 and 2011 seasons. Prior to his stint at Akron, Ianello was a member of the coaching staff at Notre Dame from 2005-09. He coached the Irish in the 2008 Hawai'i Bowl, 2007 Sugar Bowl and 2006 Fiesta Bowl.

From 2005-08 at Notre Dame, he served as wide receivers coach and coordinated the recruiting efforts of the Irish. In January 2009, he was promoted to assistant head coach for offense. In that role, he led offensive staff meetings when head coach Charlie Weis was not present, and later served as the team's interim head coach.

Notre Dame's 2009 offense ranked sixth nationally in passing offense (323.50 ypg) and ninth in total offense (451.75 ypg). Ianello mentored Irish wide receiver Golden Tate, who was the 2009 Biletnikoff Award winner and a consensus All-American. Additionally, he coached Jeff Samardzija, who was a Biletnikoff Award finalist in 2005 and 2006 and earned All-America honors in 2006.

As the recruiting coordinator for the Irish, he directed three consecutive top-10 recruiting classes from 2006-08, something only three other schools (USC, Florida and Georgia) could claim. Additionally, Ianello is the only coach named one of the 25-best recruiters nationally from 2005-09 by Rivals.com. In the book "The Second Season" by recruiting analyst Tom Lemming, Ianello is name done of the top-10 recruiters of the last 30 years.

Ianello had two coaching stints at Wisconsin (1990-93, 2003-04), and was part of a staff that helped lead the Badgers to the 1994 Rose Bowl, the 2003 Music City Bowl and the 2005 Outback Bowl.

From 1994-2002, Ianello was on staff at Arizona, serving as recruiting coordinator from 1994-96, and wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator from 1997-2002. The Wildcats played in two bowl games, the 1997 Insight.com Bowl and the 1998 Holiday Bowl. The 1998 Arizona team finished 12-1, which stands as the best record in school history.

Ianello served on the board of trustees of the American Football Coaches Association in from 2003 to 2009. The board formulates policy and provides direction for the AFCA. He also has served as the chair of the AFCA's assistant coaches' committee and the general chairman of the AFCA's all-division assistant coaches' committee. He also served on the AFCA ethics committee in 2010 and 2011.

Born Nov. 4, 1965, Ianello is a native of Port Chester, N.Y., and is a 1987 graduate of The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., owning a bachelor's degree in English.

Ianello and his wife, the former Denise Dove, have one son, Zachary, and two daughters, Ashley and Courtney. Denise played collegiate basketball at Northern Illinois and is a former assistant women's basketball coach at Arizona and Wisconsin. She has also worked as a scout in the WNBA.

Daryl Agpalsa

Offensive Line
Linfield '02
Fourth Season at Buffalo

Daryl Agpalsa is in his fourth season as offensive line coach.

The offensive line blocked for a unit that passed for a school-record 3,490 yards in 2017. The Bulls allowed only 16 sacks on the year, which ranked second in the Mid-American Conference. Center James O'Hagan was named All-MAC Third Team for the second straight season and it marked the third straight season a UB offensive lineman was named All-MAC.

In 2016, Agpalsa's offensive line paved the way for Jordan Johnson's 1,000-yard season, including his school-record 282-yard performance against Akron. Center James O'Hagan was named All-MAC Third Team, becoming just the second center in program history named All-MAC.

In 2015, the Bulls averaged 249.5 passing yards and 136.9 rushing yards per game. UB allowed only 16 sacks on the year – the fourth fewest in the Mid-American Conference. Left tackle John Kling was named to the All-MAC Second Team.

Agpalsa joined the UB staff in 2014 after spending the previous two seasons as an assistant coach for the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater football team. He worked with the offensive line, specifically in coordinating the run game and protections.

UW-Whitewater finished the 2014 season 15-0 and won the Stagg Bowl national championship for the sixth time in eight seasons. The Warhawks led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) in scoring offfense (40.1), rushing offense (218.2) and passing offense (269.5).

In 2013, under Agpalsa's leadership, the offensive line blocked for the WIAC's No. 2 rushing offense and the league's No. 3 passing attack. The Warhawks averaged 166.7 yards per game on the ground and 231.1 yards per contest through the air, and set program records in completions and touchdown passes.

Prior to Whitewater, Agpalsa served as a graduate assistant coach for the offensive line at the University of Minnesota for three seasons. He mentored a pair of All-Big Ten offensive lineman and worked under head coaches Tim Brewster and Jerry Kill during his time.

Agpalsa also coached at Hamline (Minn.) University from April 2007-February 2010, and Linfield (Ore.) College from August 2003-March 2007. He helped produce four all-conference offensive linemen during his time at Hamline, and 10 all-conference linemen, including two All-Americans, at Linfield, which won three straight league titles (2003, 2004, 2005) and the 2004 NCAA Division III championship.

As a former student-athlete at Linfield, Agpalsa was a two-year captain and three-year All-Northwest Conference selection, and a first team All-America honoree in 2002, as an offensive lineman. The four-year starter helped lead the Wildcats to NWC championships in 2000, 2001 and 2002.

A native of Waipahu, Hawaii, Agpalsa graduated from Linfield in 2002 with a bachelor's in business. He earned his master's in education (applied kinesiology and sport management) from Minnesota in 2012.

Agpalsa and his wife, Ali, have two daughters, Addison and Hailey, and a son, Noa.

Alan Hensell

Tight Ends
Franklin '05
Fourth Season at Buffalo

Alan Hensell is in his fourth season as tight ends coach. In two of his three seasons at Buffalo, the Bulls have produced an All-MAC tight end.

Hensell developed young tight ends in 2017 led by sophomore Tyler Mabry who had 24 receptions for 242 yards and a touchdown. Redshirt-freshman Zac Lefebvre had five catches for 51 yards and a touchdown before an injury ended his season.

In 2016, Mason Schreck was a second-team All-MAC selection after leading the Bulls with 59 catches for 651 yards. His receiving yard total was the most in school history by a tight end. Schreck was selected by the Cincinnati Bengals in the seventh round of the 2017 NFL Draft - becoming the first UB tight end ever drafted.

In 2015, Hensell coached Matt Weiser who had arguably the best season by a tight end in school history. Weiser set the school record for receptions by a tight end with 63 en route to earning All-MAC First Team honors. Weiser also became the first player in UB's FBS era to be named an Academic All-American.

Hensell came to UB after spending the previous two seasons with the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater football team as its wide receivers coach.

In 2014 as wide receivers coach at UWW, Hensell helped lead the Warhawks to the top passing offense ranking in the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC). Four of his wide receivers earn All-WIAC honors, including two that were named to the first team. Jake Kumerow was named the Division III Player of the Year.

The Warhawks went a perfect 15-0 in 2014 and won the Stagg Bowl for the sixth time in eight years.

In 2013, two wide receivers earned All-WIAC accolades, including first team honoree Kumerow. A second team All-West Region selection by d3football.com, Kumerow set school records for receiving yards (1,331) and receiving touchdowns (19) in one season. The team's strong receiving corps helped the Warhawks post a 15-0 record and a national championship.

Hensell came to UWW from D1-AA (FCS) member Gardner-Webb (N.C.) University, where he was the offensive line coach. During the 2012 season, he helped produce three All-Big South Conference selections, including left guard Jamie Dunaway, who received third team All–America honors. A total of four players have garnered All–America honors while being tutored by Hensell.

A New Carlisle, IN, native, Hensell spent time at the University of Connecticut as an offensive quality control coach in February 2012 before joining the Gardner-Webb staff.

Hensell spent the previous five seasons in the Southeastern Conference, including the 2011 season as assistant offensive line coach and offensive graduate assistant at Ole Miss. He worked with the Rebels' offensive line and tight ends in 2011, helping mentor right tackle Bobby Massie, who was drafted in the fourth round of the 2012 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals.

In 2010, Hensell served as assistant offensive line coach and offensive intern at the University of Tennessee, where he had the opportunity to coach center James Stone, who earned freshman All-America honors for the Vols. Tennessee was selected to play in the Music City Bowl following the regular season.

Hensell worked his first stint at Ole Miss from 2007-09, working as assistant offensive line coach in 2008 and 2009. The Rebels were 9-4 in each of those seasons, finishing the seasons with AP ranks of Nos. 14 and 20, respectively, and won a pair of Cotton Bowls. In 2008, Ole Miss averaged 407.6 yards of total offense per game and 186.5 yards per game on the ground. Left tackle Michael Oher earned first-team All-America honors and was taken in the first round of the NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens. In 2009, the Rebels averaged 402.4 yards per game of total offense, including 183.6 on the ground. Standout offensive lineman John Jerry earned first-team All-America honors that season and was picked in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins.

Hensell began his college coaching career at his alma mater, coaching outside linebackers at Franklin (IN) College in 2004. Hensell also served as a student assistant baseball coach during his time at Franklin, helping the team to a 29-15 record, a Heartland Conference championship and a No. 24 national ranking in 2005.

Following his time on staff at Franklin, Hensell moved on to coach quarterbacks at UW-River Falls in 2005 and 2006. He helped tutor Jeremy Wolff, one of only three signal callers in Division III selected to play in the Aztec Bowl, to All-WIAC honors in 2006.

Hensell started his career in coaching in 2003 at Decatur Central (Ind.) High, coaching quarterbacks following a career-ending injury on the college gridiron.

As a student-athlete, Hensell played two sports at Franklin as a freshman, lining up at running back and receiver, and pitching for the Grizzlies' baseball team. He helped the baseball squad to a 32-10 record, a Heartland Conference title and a No. 30 national ranking as a freshman in 2002. He came to Franklin from New Prairie (Ind.) High School, where he was a three-sport standout in football, basketball and baseball, earning 10 letters throughout his prep career.

Hensell graduated from Franklin in 2005 with a B.A. in physical education (K-12) and a minor in health education. He earned a master's degree in science and education from Wisconsin-Whitewater in 2015.

Chris Simpson

Linebackers
Wisconsin-Whitewater '98
Fourth Season at Buffalo

Chris Simpson is in his fourth season as linebackers coach.

In 2017, Khalil Hodge had arguably the finest season by a linebacker in school history. The junior middle linebacker had an FBS-era record 154 tackles on the year to lead the Mid-American Conference and rank second in the nation. Hodge was named All-MAC First Team for his efforts.

In 2016, for the second straight season, Simpson's linebackers were the top three leading tacklers on the team. Khalil Hodge had a huge season for the Bulls, finishing with 123 tackles, the eighth most in school history for a single season and the second most in UB's FBS era. Hodge was named All-MAC Second Team.

Simpson made an immediate impact with the Bulls as the linebackers were arguably the strongest unit of the Bulls defense in 2015. The top three tacklers on the team were linebackers and for the first time since 2008, the Bulls had two different players with over 100 tackles as Nick Gilbo finished with 113 and Brandon Berry had 104. Berry was named All-MAC Second Team and Okezie Alozie was named third-team All-MAC.

Simpson came to UB after spending 2014 as the outside linebackers coach at MAC-foe Eastern Michigan.

Prior to coaching at EMU, Simpson spent the previous four seasons as linebackers coach at Grand Valley State. During his time in Allendale, Mich., the team posted a 39-11 record and four Division II playoff victories. He also tutored six All-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) performers during that span.

Grand Valley closed the 2013 football campaign ranked third in the final American Football Coaches Association poll. The Lakers advanced to the NCAA DII National Semifinals for the eighth time after knocking off undefeated and No. 3 ranked Colorado State University-Pueblo.

Senior linebacker Jordan Kaufman received second team All-GLIAC honors after leading the squad in tackles with 87, while also recording eight tackles for loss, a fumble recovery and returning a blocked field goal 56 yards for a score. Also earning honorable mention league honors for GVSU were senior linebackers Charles Hill and Luther Ware.

His 2011 linebacking unit was a key component in a Laker defense that ended the year among the GLIAC leaders. GVSU led the league in tackles for loss (93) and sacks (36), while ranking second in scoring defense (20.2). GVSU limited opponents to 15.5 points per game in its last five games that season.

Simpson's linebacking unit helped the Laker defense rank nationally in several categories, including the top 20 in tackles for loss and quarterback sacks in 2010. Ware and Justin Victor earned All-GLIAC accolades during the 2010 campaign.

He arrived at GVSU following a two-year stint at the University of Nebraska-Omaha under current EMU defensive coordinator Brad McCaslin. The Mavericks were 14-9 with one appearance in the NCAA DII playoffs during his time on the staff.

Simpson spent five years at Division III national power Wisconsin-Whitewater where he was an assistant coach in charge of the linebackers. UWW was 42-3 his final three seasons with three-straight NCAA DIII National Championship game appearances and three Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference crowns. The Warhawks claimed the 2007 National Championship and turned in an overall mark of 56-9 during his five years on the staff.

In addition, Simpson coached two years (1999-2000) at Waunakee (Wis.) High School, one year (2001) at Loras College in Dubuque, Iowa, as a graduate assistant and one year (2002) at Wisconsin-Platteville. In the summer of 2006, Simpson was selected as a participant at the NCAA Men's Football Coaches Academy.

He also has received an NFL Minority Coaching Internship on six occasions, from the Green Bay Packers for defensive line and special teams in the summer of 2006, in 2007 with the Dallas Cowboys, in 2008 with the Carolina Panthers, in 2009 with the Minnesota Vikings and Cleveland Browns and in 2013 with the Detroit Lions.

Simpson graduated with a bachelor's degree from Wisconsin-Whitewater in physical education in 1998. He earned his master's in curriculum and instruction in 2004.

Simpson and his wife, Nicole, have three children: Jarryn, Riley and Noah.

Tim Edwards

Defensive Line
Delta State '91
Fourth Season at Buffalo

Tim Edwards is in his fourth season with the Bulls and will focus on defensive tackles in 2018.

It was another strong season for the Bulls' defensive line in 2017. Buffalo had 19 sacks on the year, 13 of which came from defensive linemen. Defensive end Demone Harris, a former walk-on, had the finest season of his career, finishing with 9.5 tackles for loss and five sacks, both team highs, en route to earning All-MAC Second Team honors. Fellow starting defensive end Chuck Harris also flourished with 73 tackles, seven tackles for loss and four sacks and was named All-MAC Third Team.

In 2016, the UB defensive line was one of strengths of the defense. Of the Bulls' 18 sacks on the season, 10 came defensive linemen, including a team-high four from Brandon Crawford.

In 2015, he molded a young defensive line unit that showed promise throughout the season. He helped lead a defense that scored seven defensive touchdowns, which ranked second in the nation.

Edwards has 21 years of coaching experience. He spent four years as defensive line coach at Louisiana-Lafayette before coming to Buffalo.

Louisiana-Lafayette won the New Orleans Bowl in all four seasons he was with the Ragin' Cajuns. In 2014, the team led the Sun Belt Conference in rush defense and defensive linemen Christian Ringoand Justin Hamilton were both named All-Sun Belt First Team. Edwards also coached an all-conference defensive lineman in 2011, 2012 and 2013.

Prior to coaching at Louisiana-Lafayette, Edwards spent three seasons as co-defensive coordinator and defensive ends coach at Florida A&M. In 2010, the Rattlers were co-champions of the MEAC and Edwards was selected to coach in the HBCU All-Star Bowl.

Edwards spent four seasons as defensive line coach and linebackers coach as well as recruiting coordinator at Hampton University. The Pirates were MEAC Champions and FCS playoff participants in 2004, 2005 and 2006. Hampton finished in the top six in the FCS in scoring defense in 2005 and 2006.

He also had coaching stints at Pearl River Community College, Kentucky State and the Carolina Rhinos of the AFL2.

Edwards is a 1991 graduate of Delta State University with a degree in aviation management. He was an All-American linebacker/defensive lineman for the Statesmen and is in the school's hall of fame. He played three seasons for the New England Patriots as well as three seasons for the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the CFL.

He and his wife, LuAnn, have three children, Halena, Timothy II and Kenci.

Taiwo Onatolu

Cornerbacks/Co-Special Teams
Nebraska-Omaha '06
Third Season at Buffalo

Taiwo Onatolu is in his third season as cornerbacks coach after starting his career at UB as director of player personnel. He also serves as co-special teams coordinator.

The Bulls ranked fifth in the Mid-American Conference in pass defense in 2017, allowing 205 yards per game and added eight interceptions.

In 2016, UB's defense led the MAC and ranked 13th in the nation in pass defense - allowing 181.5 yards per game.

Onatolu came to UB from Missouri State where he spent the previous five seasons at inside linebakers coach. He is a native of Papillion, NE, and spent the 2007 to 2010 seasons as an assistant at the University of Nebraska-Omaha.

He was also a standout linebacker at UNO, starting four seasons for the Mavericks, earning All-NCC first-team honors three times and All-America first-team honors in 2004. He was the North Central Conference's most valuable linebacker in 2004 after posting 98 tackles and 5 interceptions. He was in on 71 tackles as a senior, helping him earn All-America second and third-team honors by different agencies.

Onatolu finished his four-year stint at UNO as the program's No. 2 all-time tackler with 371 total stops. He also tallied 46.5 tackles for loss, 12.5 sacks, 7 interceptions and 182 solo tackles in 44 games. He helped the Mavericks to a pair of NCC titles and a 2005 playoff appearance.

After completing his degree in Communication, Public Affairs & Community Service from UNO in 2006, Onatolu stayed at UNO for two years as a graduate assistant coach, working with the squad's linebackers. He coached All-American safety Randy Kush in 2007, the school's all-time leader in interceptions. He moved to full-time status in March 2010 and helped UNO to a combined 29-16 ledger during his four years on staff, including NCAA Division II playoff appearances in 2007, 2008 and 2009.

In his first season at Missouri State in 2011, he had the best of both worlds with a gritty and determined senior in David Ingram at one inside linebacker spot and a redshirt freshman in Andrew Beisel at the other. Beisel went on to record a team-high 84 tackles, becoming the first MSU freshman since 1998 to lead the club in total stops and earned MVFC All-Newcomer Team distinction. Ingram, who started all 11 games, tallied 77 tackles and finished third on the squad.

In 2012, Onatolu used five different starters in his rotation, including Beisel who led all middle linebackers with 73 stops in 10 games, while redshirt freshman Christian Hoffmann brought down 41 ball carriers with 5 starts in an impressive debut campaign.

It was Beisel and Hoffmann who led Onatolu's inside backers again in 2013. Beisel tallied 96 stops while starting all 12 games and earning All-MVFC honorable mention honors his junior campaign, while Hoffmann earned 9 starts his sophomore season with 36 total stops. The tandem helped Missouri State rank among the national leaders in red zone defense, rushing defense, scoring defense and passing defense, while ranking as one of the top defensive units in the MVFC.

Onatolu's twin brother, Kenny, has enjoyed a professional career that began with the Edmonton Eskimos in the Canadian Football League and included stints with the Minnesota Vikings and Carolina Panthers. He was also an All-NCC linebacker.

Jim Zebrowksi

Quarterbacks/Co-Offensive Coordinator
Mount Union '91
Second Season at Buffalo

Jim Zebrowksi, a coaching veteran in the Big Ten and the Mid-American Conference, begins his second season as quarterbacks and will also serve as co-offensive coordinator beginning in 2018. Zebrowksi brought 25 years of coaching experience to Buffalo, including five successful seasons at Minnesota.

Zebrowski made an immediate impact in his first season with the Bulls in 2017. Despite, an injury-riddled season that saw the Bulls have to start three different quarterbacks, Buffalo still led the MAC and set a school record with 3,490 passing yards on the year. Tyree Jackson threw for 2,096 yards and 14 touchdowns in eight games on the season, including three 300+ yard games. Backup Drew Anderson started against Western Michigan and threw for a school- and conference-record 597 yards and seven touchdowns.

Zebrowski was the quarterbacks coach at Minnesota from 2011-15 and helped lead the Gophers to three straight bowl games. He is well known for developing young quarterbacks. Minnesota signal-caller Mitch Leidner advanced from running the scout team to accounting for 2,250 yards and 21 touchdowns in 2014. Leidner had 10 rushing touchdowns, tying the school record for a quarterback.

He helped lead the Gophers to the Meineke Car Care Bowl in 2012, the Texas Bowl in 2013 and the Citrus Bowl in 2014. He likely would have stayed at Minnesota. However, head coach Jerry Kill stepped down for health reasons in 2015, resulting in changes to the coaching staff.

Prior to coaching at Minnesota, Zebrowksi was the quarterbacks coach at Northern Illinois in 2010. He tutored All-MAC quarterback Chandler Harnish, an NFL draft pick of the Indianapolis Colts. He also laid the foundation for Harnish's backup Jordan Lynch who was an All-American and a Heisman Trophy finalist in 2013. Featuring a high-powered offense that averaged over 35 points per game, Zebrowski helped lead the Huskies to the 2010 MAC Championship game and a win over Fresno State in the Humanitarian Bowl.

This is the second time Zebrowski will serve under Leipold. He was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Wisconsin-Whitewater from 2007-09. Over his tenure, the Warhawks went 42-3 and advanced to the Division III title game every year, winning it twice. Zebrowksi was named the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year and the FootballScoop.com Division III Coordinator of the Year in 2009.

In 2004, he became the head coach at Lakeland University and led the Muskies to a 28-12 record over four seasons. He led Lakeland to a pair of Illini-Badger Conference championships and advanced to the Division III playoffs for the first time in school history.

Zebrowski and his wife, Heather, who was named Female Athlete of the Year during her volleyball playing days at Southern Illinois, have two children, Zachary and Lauryn.

Roc Bellantoni

Defensive Ends/Co-Special Teams Coord.
Iona '93
Second Season at Buffalo

Roc Bellantoni was promoted to defensive ends coach and co-special teams coordinator prior to the 2018 season after spending one year as the Director of Player Personnel.

Bellantoni came to Buffalo from Florida Atlantic where he spent three seasons the defensive coordinator. He served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at FAU from 2014-16. At FAU, Bellantoni coached Trey Hendrickson, currently a defensive end for the New Orleans Saints. Hendrickson ended his storied career, three seasons of which under Bellantoni, as the program's all-time leader in sacks, tackles for loss, quarterback hurries and forced fumbles.

Prior to FAU, coached the defensive line and special teams at Villanova. The 2013 Villanova team finished the season ranked No. 6 in the NCAA SRS rankings. He coached All-CAA defensive linemen Rakim Cox and Antoine Lewis. He helped lead the Wildcats to the FCS playoffs in 2012.

A graduate of Iona, Bellantoni gained his most coaching experience at Eastern Illinois. He was with the Panthers from 2001-11, serving as defensive line coach, defensive coordinator and finally associate head coach. He served as an assistant from 2001-11 while working his way up the storied program's coaching ladder to associate head coach. He was the defensive coordinator from 2002-11 and the associate head coach from 2007-11. Bellantoni helped Eastern Illinois win five Ohio Valley Conference Championships (2009, 2006, 2005, 2002, and 2001) and make six NCAA playoff appearances.

Bellantoni also had coaching stints at Drake and Buena Vista University. He started his coaching career at Mamaroneck High School.

He and his wife, Jenny, have four sons, Gino, Marco, Ricky and Nico.

MINNESOTA 17, BUFFALO 7

AUG. 31, 2017 • TCF BANK STADIUM • MINNEAPOLIS, MN

MINNEAPOLIS, MN – The University at Buffalo football team put a major scare into the Big Ten's Minnesota Gophers, before falling, 17-7, at the TCF Bank Stadium in the opener to the 2017 season on Thursday night. An experienced Minnesota team returned 17 starters to a team that won nine games and won a bowl game a year ago, but had trouble shaking the Bulls.

After losing a pair of starting wide receivers to graduation following the 2016 campaign, a big question entering this season was who was going to step up in that role? That question was quickly answered with the debut of Anthony Johnson. Playing in his first career game for the Bulls after redshirting last season, the junior wideout finished with 11 catches for 140 yards and a touchdown. His 11 catches were two shy of the single-game school record.

He and quarterback Tyree Jackson made an instant connection. Half of Jackson's completions were to Johnson as the sophomore signal-caller went 22-for-42 for 211 yards and a touchdown in the game.

The UB defense also made major strides from last year, as they held the strong-running Gopher squad to 169 yards rushing in the game. Middle linebacker Khalil Hodge led the way with a career-high 20 tackles. It was the most tackles in a game by a UB player since Davonte Shannon had 20 against Army in 2008.

Safety Tim Roberts recorded a career high in tackles with 13. Jarrett Franklin also reached double-digits in tackles with 11.

Minnesota struck first in the game on a 61-yard touchdown pass to take a 7-0 lead with 9:35 left in the first quarter. The Bulls responded shortly after with a quick scoring drive of their own to tie the game. The big play on the drive was a 50-yard hookup from Jackson to Johnson that set up the Bulls at the Minnesota 16-yard line. One play later, Jackson found Johnson for a 16-yard touchdown pass to tie the game, 7-7, with 4:37 left in the first quarter.

The Gophers immediately answered with a long scoring drive that ended with a 1-yard touchdown run to regain a 14-7 lead late in the first quarter.

It looked as if Minnesota was going to build on its lead late in the first half. However, on a third-and-goal play at the UB 5, Cameron Lewis came up with an interception in the endzone to keep the lead 14-7 at the half.

The Bulls' defense continued to play well in the second half, but Minnesota stepped up its defensive effort as well. Both teams traded punts for most of the second half until the Gophers added a 43-yard field goal with 2:05 left in the game to ice it.

ARMY WEST POINT 21, BUFFALO 17

SEPT. 9, 2017 • MICHIE STADIUM • WEST POINT, NY

WEST POINT, NY – A season ago, the University at Buffalo football team erased a 14-point fourth-quarter deficit to defeat Army at UB Stadium. The Black Knights returned the favor by scoring two fourth-quarter touchdowns to beat the Bulls, 21-17, at Michie Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

Early on, things looked great for the Bulls. Tyree Jackson connected with Anthony Johnson on the fourth play of the game for a 52-yard gain. Buffalo capitalized with a 21-yard field goal by Adam Mitcheson to take an early 3-0 lead.

Army responded with a long touchdown drive on its first possession to take a 7-3 lead with 6:58 left in the first quarter.

Early in the second quarter, it started to get fun for the Bulls. On the first play of the second stanza, Jackson rumbled 75 yards on a quarterback keeper to give the Bulls a 10-7 lead. On Buffalo's very next possession, Jackson hit a streaking Antonio Nunn in stride for a 48-yard touchdown pass to give UB a 17-7 lead with 11:42 left in the half. It was Nunn's first career touchdown catch.

After a great defensive series for the Bulls, a short Army punt gave UB the ball at the Army 32. However, on the very first play of the ensuing possession, a Buffalo fumble, recovered by Army, injected life in the Black Knights.

The score remained 17-7 early in the third quarter, when another Buffalo fumble, with the Bulls in scoring position, was recovered by Army. The Black Knights marched 79 yards over the next eight minutes and scored on a short touchdown run to cut the UB advantage to 17-14.

Following a Buffalo punt, Army mounted another long scoring drive. The Black Knights drove 66 yards over seven minutes and scored on another short touchdown run to take the lead for good, 21-17.

Jackson finished with 268 yards of total offense. He was 9-of-16 for 193 yards passing and rushed for 75 yards. Johnson had three catches for 82 yards and Kamathi Holsey had three grabs for 34 yards in the game.

Defensively, Jarrett Franklin had 12 tackles, including a tackle for loss to lead the Bulls. Khalil Hodge had his second straight game with double-digit tackles, finishing with 11. Defensive ends Demone Harris and Chuck Harris each registered career highs in tackles with nine and eight, respectively.

BUFFALO 33, COLGATE 10

SEP. 16, 2017 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY -- The University at Buffalo football team rolled up 486 yards of total offense to defeat Colgate, 33-10, in the home opener at UB Stadium on Saturday night. The Bulls scored on their first five possessions of the game to jump out to a 30-3 lead and never looked back.

Buffalo rushed for a season-high 302 yards on 58 carries in the game. Sophomore Emmanuel Reed had a breakout game for the Bulls, rushing for a career-high 120 yards. Quarterback Tyree Jackson also posted a career-high in rushing yards with 97 on only 12 carries.

The Bulls took the opening kickoff and drove 75 yards on 11 plays, capped by a 14-yard touchdown run by Jackson to take an early 7-0 lead.

After a three-and-out for the Raiders on their first possession, Buffalo needed only four plays to score their second touchdown of the game. The big play on the drive was a 58-yard pass play from Jackson to tight end Tyler Mabry. Jackson connected with Anthony Johnson on a 14-yard touchdown on the very next play to extend the UB lead to 14-0.

After Colgate kicked a field goal on its next possession, to make the score 14-3, the Bulls got the ball back and marched right down the field again. Reed scored on a 10-yard touchdown run, the first of his career, to make the score 20-3 late in the first quarter.

The 20-point first quarter was Buffalo's highest-scoring first quarter since scoring 21 at Temple in 2007.

Buffalo mounted an 84-yard scoring drive early in the second quarter and scored a touchdown on a 1-yard run by Johnathan Hawkins to take a 27-3 lead. Another long pass play from Jackson to Johnson, this time a 47-yarder, helped set up the touchdown.

Adam Mitcheson added a 26-yard field, as time expired, to give UB a 30-3 lead at the half.

Mitcheson's 21-yard field late in the fourth quarter capped the scoring for the Bulls.

Jackson finished the game 9-of-16 passing for 184 yards and a touchdown. Johnson (2/60), K.J. Osborn (2/31) and Kamathi Holsey (2/14) all had two catches for the Bulls.

Defensively, the Bulls held Colgate to just 56 yards passing – their second straight game holding an opponent to under 60 yards though the air.

Demone Harris led the Bulls with six tackles as 25 different UB players registered a tackle in the game. Chuck Harris added five tackles, all solo, and had a tackle for loss. Chibueze Onwuka and Kennedy Emesibe each registered the first sacks of their UB careers.

BUFFALO 34, FLORIDA ATLANTIC 31

SEP. 23, 2017 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY -- The University at Buffalo football team won its second straight game with a 34-31 victory over Florida Atlantic at UB Stadium on Saturday night. New faces helped the Bulls turn a 17-17 halftime tie into a 34-31 win.

The Bulls (2-2) rallied around back-up quarterback Drew Anderson who played the second half after starter Tyree Jackson went down with an injury late in the second quarter. Anderson, who previously had one career pass attempt looked sharp, completing 7-of-9 passes for 109 yards and a touchdown.

The Bulls scored touchdowns on their first two possessions of the game. They took the opening kickoff and marched 75 yards on 11 plays, capped by a Jackson 2-yard touchdown run to take a 7-0 lead.

On FAU's ensuing possession, Ryan Williamson came up with an interception to give the ball right back to the Bulls. Buffalo took advantage and marched 79 yards on eight plays and took a 14-0 lead when Jackson scored on a 6-yard run – his second of the night.

Florida Atlantic (1-3) started to get its running game going on its next two possessions, scoring rushing touchdowns on 37-yard and 34 yards, respectively, to quickly tie the game at 14 with 13:25 left in the second quarter.

A field goal gave the Owls a 17-14 lead with 6:35 left in the second quarter. The Bulls then methodically marched down the field in the final six minutes of the half and Adam Mitcheson's 23-yard field goal tied the game, 17-17, at the break.

Theo Anderson scored the first touchdown of his career on a 7-yard run to give the Bulls a 24-17 lead with 2:17 left in the third quarter. Anderson saw the most action of his career and responded with 57 yards on 11 carries.

The UB defense stepped up on the Owls' next possession forcing a three-and-out. The key play was a third-down sack by Malcolm Koonce, the first of his career, to force an FAU punt. On UB's next possession, Mitcheson drilled a season-long 42-yard field goal to extend the Buffalo lead to 27-17 with 10:54 left in the game.

FAU scored a touchdown to cut the lead to 27-24 with 7:30 left and got the ball back with a chance to tie or take the lead. However, a fourth-down stop by the defense gave UB the ball back at the FAU 18 with 2:51 remaining.

After a couple short runs were stopped by the Owls, the Bulls faced a big decision on third down. They put the ball in the hands of Drew Anderson and the junior quarterback floated a perfect pass to Anthony Johnson for a 20-yard touchdown and a 10-point lead with 2:37 left. Johnson finished with six catches for 87 yards and a score.

Florida Atlantic scored a touchdown with 1:13 left, but failed to convert the onside kick and the Bulls earned the victory

Emmanuel Reed made his first career start at running back and rushed for 107 yards on 26 carries – his second straight 100-yard game.

The UB defense was led by linebacker Khalil Hodge who finished with 16 tackles. Brandon Williams had a career-high eight tackles. Cornerback Tatum Slack was all over the field with six tackles, a tackle for loss, a forced fumble and three pass break-ups.

BUFFALO 27, KENT STATE 13

SEPT. 30, 2017 • DIX STADIUM • KENT, OH

KENT, OH – The University at Buffalo football team opened Mid-American Conference play with a 27-13 victory at Kent State on Saturday afternoon at Dix Stadium. It was the Bulls' third straight win to improve to 3-2 on the season.

Drew Anderson made his first career start under center for the Bulls and did a great job managing the offense. The junior quarterback finished the game 11-of-18 for 142 yards and a touchdown. He added 76 yards on the ground, including a 64-yard scamper in the third quarter.

Emmanuel Reed got the start at running back for the second straight week and for the third straight game eclipsed the century mark in rushing yards. The sophomore back finished with 144 yards and a career-high three touchdowns, all of which he scored in the first half.

Reed scored his first touchdown on an 18-yard run with 8:01 left in the first quarter to give the Bulls a 7-0 lead. One-play prior, Reed ripped off a career-long 55 yard run.

Reed struck again on the Bulls' next possession, scoring on a 1-yard run to extend the Buffalo lead to 14-0, early in the second quarter.

After Kent State scored on a 75-yard pass play, to cut the lead to 14-7, the Bulls punted the ball back to the Golden Flashes. The UB defense forced a Kent State punt on its next possession and true-freshman Kobe Green followed with the biggest play of his young career. Green blocked the Kent State punt, giving the Bulls a first down at the Kent State 8-yard line. Two plays later, Reed punched it in for his third TD of the game.

Kent State kicked a pair of field goals late in the half to cut the UB lead to 20-13 at the break.

The Golden Flashes took the opening kick of the second half and drove all the way down the Buffalo 1-yard line. However, on 4th-and-goal at the 1-yard line, the Bulls defense stuffed the quarterback sneak attempt and took over on downs.

The Bulls capitalized and drove 99 yards on eight plays and Drew Anderson lofted a beautiful 5-yard touchdown pass in the back of the endzone to Zac Lefebvre to extend the lead to 27-13. It was Lefebvre's first career touchdown catch.

The defense went to work from there, shutting out Kent State the rest of the way. Brandon Williams came up with his first interception of the season to ice the game.

Linebacker Jordan Collier had the best game of his career, finishing with nine tackles, a sack and three tackles for loss. Khalil Hodge had another double-digit tackle performance with 11 tackles and a sack.

As a team, the Bulls had a season-high four sacks and seven tackles for loss in the game. Chuck Harris and Demone Harris each added a sack for the Bulls.

WESTERN MICHIGAN 71, BUFFALO 68 (7 OTs)

OCT. 7, 2017 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – In one of the wildest football games in NCAA history, the University at Buffalo dropped a 71-68 seven-overtime decision to Western Michigan at UB Stadium on Saturday. The teams combined to score 139 points, the most ever in an NCAA game and the seven overtimes tied the longest game in NCAA history.

UB quarterback Drew Anderson had not only the greatest game in school history, but one of the finest in the storied annals of the Mid-American Conference. The junior signal-caller threw for a school-record 597 yards and seven touchdowns and added an eighth score on the ground. His passing yardage total was the most in MAC history.

For the first time in school history, the Bulls had three receivers with over 100 yards receiving in a game. Anthony Johnson led the way with 11 catches for 195 yards and two touchdowns – all career highs. K.J. Osborn also posted career-high numbers of seven catches for 138 yards and three scores. Kamathi Holsey had six receptions for 143 yards and a touchdown.

The Bulls trailed 24-14 early in the fourth quarter. Anderson delivered an 8-yard strike to Johnson to cut the WMU lead to 24-21. On the Bulls' next possession, Anderson connected on a 54-yard touchdown pass to Osborn to put UB ahead, 28-24, with 8:47 left.

The Broncos regained the lead, 31-28, on a touchdown pass with 4:45 left in regulation. The Bulls drove the field on the next possession and Adam Mitcheson calmly kicked a 34-yard field goal with just 34 seconds left to tie the game at 31. A 52-yard field goal attempt by Western Michigan at the regulation was blocked by Jarrett Franklin.

Anderson found Holsey for a 5-yard touchdown to open the scoring in overtime. Western Michigan answered with a 14-yard touchdown pass to tie the game and send it to a second overtime. After Western Michigan scored on their possession in the second overtime, Anderson found Johnson for a 25-yard touchdown pass to tie the game and force a third overtime.

After neither team scored in the third overtime, The Broncos struck first in the fourth OT with a touchdown run and a 2-point conversion to take a 53-45 lead. The Bulls answered with an Anderson-to-Osborn 4-yard touchdown connection, followed by some razzle dazzle as Johnson passed the ball to Anderson for the 2-point conversion.

The Bulls kicked off the fifth overtime with an Anderson to Osborn 27-yard touchdown. After the two-point conversion failed, Western Michigan took over, trailing by six. The Broncos scored a touchdown on their possession, but the UB defense stepped up and stop the two-point conversion. With the game tied at 59, the teams were off to the fifth overtime.

Western Michigan scored a touchdown with its possession in the sixth overtime, but again, the Bulls' defense stuffed the 2-point attempt. After throwing seven touchdown passes, Anderson added one with his feet, scoring on a 2-yard scamper to tie the game at 59. However, a walk-off 2-point attempt failed and the game continued.

Mitcheson made a 25-yard field goal in the seventh overtime to give the Bulls a 68-65 lead. However, WMU's Jarvion Franklin, who rushed for 176 yards in the game, scored on a 12-yard run to win it for the Broncos.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS 14, BUFFALO 13

OCT. 14, 2017 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY -- For the second straight week, the University at Buffalo football team dropped a nail-biter at UB Stadium. The Bulls fell to Northern Illinois, 14-13, in a defensive struggle on Saturday afternoon.

After Buffalo took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on an Adam Mitcheson field goal, Northern Illinois scored on its next two possessions to take a 14-3 lead early in the second quarter. The UB defense wouldn't allow another point the rest of the game.

Northern Illinois (4-2, 2-0 MAC) entered Saturday's game with not only the best defense in the MAC, but one of the tops in the nation. The Bulls began to find their groove offensively after NIU's second score.

Buffalo (3-4, 1-2 MAC) drove 81 yards on just four plays behind the arm of quarterback Drew Anderson. The junior signal-caller completed a 27-yard pass to Anthony Johnson; a 40-yard pass to Emmanuel Reed; a short gain to Tyler Mabry and capped it off with a 21-yard touchdown pass to Reed to cut the NIU advantage to 14-10.

The Bulls were able to drive the ball down the field on their next possession, but had to settle for a 22-yard Mitcheson field goal to make it a 14-13 contest late in the first half.

However, late in the drive, Drew Anderson went down with an injury forcing him to leave the game. Prior to the injury, Anderson was 13-for-18 for 191 yards and a touchdown.

Enter Kyle Vantrease, the Bulls' third different quarterback to play this season.

The true freshman, seeing the first action of his career, finished 8-for-16 for 153 yards in the game. The youngster showed poise and completed a 47-yard pass to Johnson and a 43-yarder to Antonio Nunn.

It was another big game for Johnson as the junior receiver finished with seven catches for 140 yards.

Khalil Hodge led the Bulls' defensive effort with 19 tackles. Jordan Collier had a career-high 10 tackles in the game. Cameron Lewis had five tackles and forced two fumbles, both of which were recovered by the Bulls.

MIAMI (OH) 24, BUFFALO 14

OCT. 21, 2017 • YAGER STADIUM • OXFORD, OH

OXFORD, OH – The University at Buffalo football team fell to the Miami RedHawks, 24-14, at Yager Stadium on Saturday afternoon. After winning three straight games, it was the Bulls' third consecutive loss to drop them to 3-5 overall and 1-3 in the MAC.

True freshman quarterback Kyle Vantrease made his first career start for the Bulls becoming the first true freshman to start for UB since Drew Willy in 2005. Miami did a nice job defensively making things difficult for the UB youngster.

Vantrease finished the game 17-of-41 for 202 yards, two touchdowns and an interception.

Miami (3-5, 2-2 MAC) scored on its first two possessions of the game, a field goal, followed by a 7-yard touchdown run to jump out to a 10-0 lead. However, the UB defense stiffened the remainder of the half, keeping the RedHawks off the scoreboard.

Vantrease threw his first career touchdown pass late in the second quarter when he found Anthony Johnson in the corner of the endzone on an 8-yard fade. The touchdown cut the Miami advantage to 10-7 with 5:23 left in the half.

A UB fumble on its opening possession of the second half proved costly as Miami capitalized with a 35-yard touchdown run on the first play of its drive to take a 17-7 lead just 57 seconds into the second half.

Miami would later score another touchdown late in the third quarter to take a 24-7 lead.

The Bulls rallied late and cut the lead to 24-14 on an 11-yard touchdown pass from Vantrease to Tyler Mabry with just under three minutes to play. It was Mabry's first career touchdown.

K.J. Osborn recovered a perfectly executed onside kick, giving the Bulls hope, down 10, with 2:52 left. However, the Bulls couldn't take advantage, turning the ball back over to the RedHawks, allowing them to run out the clock.

Johnson had five catches for 56 yards to lead the UB receivers. Mabry, Kamathi Holsey and Antonio Nunn each had three catches for the Bulls.

Once again, Khalil Hodge led the Bulls' defense with double-digit tackles. The junior linebacker finished with 14 tackles to bring his season total to 115. Jarrett Franklin had five tackles, a tackle for loss and a pass breakup for the Bulls.

AKRON 21, BUFFALO 20

OCT. 28, 2017 • INFOCISION STADIUM • AKRON, OH

AKRON, OH – The University at Buffalo football team suffered another heartbreaking defeat, dropping a 21-20 decision at Akron on Saturday afternoon. The Bulls (3-6, 1-4 MAC) have now lost four Mid-American Conference games by a total of 15 points.

Tyree Jackson was under center for the Bulls for the first time since suffering an injury against Florida Atlantic and missing the last four games. The sophomore quarterback responded by throwing for a career-high 315 yards. His completions (34) and attempts (50) were also career highs.

Having Jackson back seemed to spark the offense as they rolled up 459 yards of total offense on the day. UB also seemed to get its running game back on track. Emmanuel Reed rushed for 116 yards and two touchdowns in the game.

The Bulls struck first in the game on a Reed 2-yard touchdown run, capping a 6-play, 80-yard drive. The Zips answered right back with a touchdown to tie the game, 7-7, late in the first quarter.

Adam Mitcheson made a 37-yard field goal to put the Bulls ahead 10-7 with 12:17 left in the half. After Akron scored on a 41-yard touchdown pass with 4:50 left in the half to take a 14-10 lead, Mitcheson connected again, this time from 36 yards out, to cut the Akron advantage to 14-13 at the break.

The Bulls took the lead back, 20-14, early in the fourth quarter on Reed's second rushing touchdown of the game, this time from 10 yards out. However, a 36-yard Akron touchdown pass gave the Zips the lead, 21-20, with 4:46 left.

On UB's ensuing possession, the Bulls were able to drive the ball down to the Akron 29. However, Mitcheson's 46-yard field goal, to give the Bulls the lead with 1:51 left, was pulled wide to the left, allowing the Zips to escape with the victory.

Jackson's 34 completions were two shy of the school record. His favorite target was Kamathi Holsey who had seven catches for 100 yards in the game. Anthony Johnson and K.J. Osborn each had six receptions for the Bulls.

Defensively, the Bulls held Akron to only 81 yards rushing, including only three through the first three quarters. Tim Roberts had six tackles, an interception and a pass breakup of the Bulls. Justin Brandon had a pair of tackles for loss.

BUFFALO 38, BOWLING GREEN 28

NOV. 7, 2017 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – Tyree Jackson threw for a career-high 406 yards and three touchdowns to help lead the University at Buffalo football team to a 38-28 win over Bowling Green at UB Stadium on Tuesday night. The Bulls rolled up 582 yards of total offense en route to their fourth win of the season.

It was another big game for Jackson's favorite target, Anthony Johnson, who finished with eight catches for 160 yards and two touchdowns. It was his fourth 100-yard receiving game of the season and put him over him 1,000 yards on the year. He became just the fourth UB receiver in school history with 1,000 receiving yards in a single season, joining Drew Haddad, Naaman Roosevelt and Alex Neutz, who all did it twice.

The Bulls scored 21 first-quarter points, starting with a 5-yard touchdown run by Emmanuel Reed. After Bowling Green tied the game at 7, Johnson scored touchdowns on back-to-back drives. His first was a 21-yard TD reception to give the Bulls a 14-7 lead with 3:20 left in the first quarter. Jackson hit Johnson in stride for a 69-yard touchdown, less than two minutes later, to extend the UB lead to 21-7.

After Bowling Green cut the Bulls' advantage to 21-14 at the half, Buffalo marched right down the field on its opening possession of the second half and took a 28-14 lead on a Jackson 37-yard touchdown strike to K.J. Osborn.

Bowling Green cut the lead to 31-28 early in the fourth quarter. Theo Anderson put the game on ice with an eight-yard touchdown run to put the Bulls ahead, 38-28, with 8:53 left. Anderson had the best game of his young career. The redshirt-freshman running back rushed for a career-best 133 yards in the game.

The UB defense forced and recovered a season-high three fumbles in the game. Chuck Harris had two of the forced fumbles. Justin Brandon forced and recovered a fumble at the Bowling Green 6-yard line that led to the Bulls' first scored of the game.

Khalil Hodge had a game-high 10 tackles in the game to bring his season total to 129. He now holds the FBS-era record for single-season tackles, breaking the previous record of 125 set by Justin Winters in 2008.

BUFFALO 40, BALL STATE 24

NOV. 16, 2017 • SCHEUMANN STADIUM • MUNCIE, IN

MUNCIE, OH – The University at Buffalo football team won at Ball State for the first time in school history, 40-24, on Thursday night. The win improved the Bulls' record to 5-6, keeping their hopes of being bowl eligible alive.

UB quarterback Tyree Jackson threw for 350 yards and a career-high four touchdowns in the game to become the first quarterback in school history to throw for 300 yards in three straight games.

His favorite target was Anthony Johnson who had seven catches for 153 yards and tied a school record with four receiving touchdowns. The junior wideout had touchdown grabs of 21, 14, 11 and 56 yards. He tied Chris D'Amico (1983) and Alex Neutz (2012) for the record.

UB piled up 565 yards of total offense – their second straight game of 550+ yards of offense. Along with 350 yards passing, the Bulls rolled up 215 yards rushing. Emmanuel Reed had 123 yards on the ground for his fifth 100-yard game of the season. Theo Anderson nearly reached the century mark as well with 91 yards, including a career-long 45-yard scamper.

The 153 yards by Anthony Johnson brought his season total to 1,201, good for second in school history for a single season. Antonio Nunn posted his first career 100-yard receiving game and did so on just two catches. The redshirt-freshman had grabs of 45 and 57 yards.

Buffalo never trailed in the game, jumping out to a 16-0 lead. After taking a 23-10 halftime lead, the Bulls marched right down the field on their first possession of the second half and took a 30-10 lead on a 16-yard touchdown run by K.J. Osborn.

The Cardinals could get no closer than 13 points and the Bulls were able to silence all of their threats.

Chuck Harris led the UB defense with a career-high 13 tackles and a sack in the game. Khalil Hodge had 12 tackles in the game, including 1.5 for loss. The junior linebacker upped his season tackle total to 141 and moved into fourth in school history for a single season.

Ryan Williamson had his team-best third interception of the year to go along with six tackles.

History of UB Football

The year was 1894. Fourteen University at Buffalo medical students got together, bought uniforms and practiced after classes, splitting time at Brown's Riding Academy on East North Street and John's Riding Academy on East Utica. After honing their skills carefully, avoiding remnants of horses that grazed their practice pastures, they put on their blue jerseys, tight pants, and leather boots and stepped onto a baseball field on East Ferry Street to face Hobart College. As they kicked off to the visitors, no one among those first UB football players could have foreseen the journey they were embarking upon. They were not merely kicking a football, they were kicking off UB's quest for intercollegiate competition.

UB's football program began modestly when the University, then a private institution consisting of schools of dentistry, law, medicine and pharmacy, formed an athletic association. The athletic association in turn started the first football program. That first team was led by captain A. B. Stein who was joined by founding members J.B. Crofts, Irving Johnson, William Potter, Gray McCuthcheon, St. John Green and "Dinky" Johnson. During the first three years of its existence, the football team played squads from the University of Rochester and Hobart College and experienced little success, compiling a record of 0-2-4. Most importantly however, the team gained recognition from UB during this period when the University granted the team usage of an on-campus field for its home games.

UB football savored its first taste of success in 1897 when the team compiled a 7-0 record under manager E.J. Meyer and coach C.W. Dibble. Crowds began to flock to UB's home games, and in response the university moved many of the team's more popular contests to Civic Stadium in 1900.

The UB football bandwagon really gained momentum when the team played in an exhibition match at the 1901 Pan-American Exposition. UB played in front of a Chinese representative who "... did not understand much about the game, was delighted to see the sport." This high point was short-lived however, as UB was dealt a crushing 128-0 defeat by national powerhouse University of Michigan in what remains the worst defeat ever suffered by a UB squad. That loss seemingly was symbolic of the hard times to come as poor support and organization for the following two seasons forced UB's athletic association to cease football operations after the 1903 season.

Frank M. Pleasant awoke the hibernating UB football program in 1915 when he revitalized the program as the team's first full-time, professional head coach. UB adopted the Bison as its mascot that year and proceeded to a 3-3 record.

Art Powell took over the reins of the program in 1916, helping UB to improve with each season. UB football hit a peak in 1918 when the squad compiled a 3-1 record. The Bisons also enjoyed their most lopsided victory to date during the '18 campaign, an 81-0 defeat of Hobart.

The 1923 season brought many changes to UB's football program. James Batterson took over as head coach and the Bisons played their first game at Rotary Field, dedicated by the Rotary Club of Buffalo. Dr. James Ailinger, a standout basketball player for UB and a member of the 1922 football team, recalled UB's humble facilities on opening day at Rotary Field.

"The first season we played here we had to dress up in Hayes Hall and run to the field," said Ailinger. "In between there was a farm, so we had to run through potato and vegetable fields to reach the stadium. Only the end zone was marked. There were stones everywhere and the end zone on the side near the present medical school was six feet higher than the other side. Winning the toss was important because we could choose to play uphill or downhill."

UB struggled the first season in its new home, compiling a 1-5 record.

The six seasons that followed under head coaches James Bond (1923) and Russell Carrick (1924-28) were rather bleak as well. The Bisons did not have a winningseason over that period, tallying a record of 7-36-3. By 1929 it was quite evident that UB's football program desperately needed resuscitation once again. The man to jump start UB was head coach Jay "Biffy" Lee, former roommate at Notre Dame of legendary coach Knute Rockne. Some of Rockne's majestical motivation must have rubbed off as Lee led UB to a 5-2 record in what would be the Bisons only winning campaign in 16 seasons. Lee upgraded UB's schedule during the following two seasons and the Bisons' record suffered once again as they fell to squads from Fordham, Carnegie Tech, Dartmouth and the Notre Dame B team.

In 1931, the team changed its mascot to the Bull in order to distinguish UB from the professional teams in the Queen City.

Jim Peelle was hired as the 12th head coach in Bulls' history in 1936 with the burden of ending six consecutive losing campaigns. Peelle rejuvenated the program by notching five victories against three losses in his inaugural season. That success was short-lived however, as UB failed to post another winning season until 1942 when Peelle's squad went 6-2 once again with impressive victories over Hobart, St. Lawrence and Johns Hopkins.

UB heeded the call of its nation after the 1942 season by suspending all intercollegiate athletics due to the country's involvement in World War II. The Bulls returned to the field in 1946 and staged their second consecutive winning season for the first time since 1899. Civic Stadium became the home site for all UB home games in 1946, a relationship which lasted until 1954.

Frank Clair was handpicked by Peelle to be his replacement in 1948. Clair extended UB's consecutive winning seasons mark to five during his two-year stint. The highlight of Clair's tenure was a 48-13 victory over the heavily-favored Louisville Cardinals.

The Canadian Football League lured Clair away in 1950 and UB Athletic Director Jim Peelle brought back a familiar face to lead the Bulls, former head coach James Wilson. Despite severe cutbacks in the football program's budget and mediocre seasons, the Bulls drew 26,126 fans to Civic Stadium, setting a single-game attendance record, in a 47-13 loss to Colgate.

In 1955, Clifford C. Furnas was named Chancellor of the University and instituted a five-year plan aimed at upgrading UB's athletic programs. Richard "Dick" Offenhamer was tabbed to lead the Bulls back to respectability and did so by posting a 4-4-1 record in his initial season. Fran Woidzik, a standout on the 1955 squad, went on to become the first Bull to be taken in the National Football League draft. Offenhamer's first season was a prelude of good things to come for the Bulls, as he would end his career with UB's best career winning percentage.

The year 1958 will forever be remembered as one of the greatest seasons in UB football history. On the strength of an 8-1 record that included victories over Harvard and Columbia, UB claimed the prestigious Lambert Cup, emblematic of Eastern small college supremacy. Team captains Nick Bottini and Lou Reale accepted the award on the Ed Sullivan Show on December 14 of that year before a national audience. The Bulls also earned an invitation to the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Florida but declined the offer to protest the discriminatory policies of the bowl's stadium, which refused to allow black athletes to compete on its field.

After posting an 8-1 record and finishing second in the Lambert Cup competition to Delaware in 1959, UB moved up to University Division status in 1960.

UB football made great strides in the early 1960s with stars like quarterback John "Long John" Stofa and defensive tackle Gerry Philbin. Stofa rewrote UB's passing records during his career while Philbin was named to the All-East team and played in the North-South and Coaches All-American post-season games. Both Stofa and Philbin would go on to play in the NFL following their UB careers.

UB reached another pinnacle in 1962, being recognized as "major" by the NCAA. UB also received attention in 1964 when its contest at Boston University was televised to a national audience.

Doc Urich handled UB's coaching duties for the 1966-68 seasons after Offenhamer stepped down. Urich guided UB to its finest season at the "major" level with a 7-3 record, losing only to Iowa State, Boston College and Villanova.

Bob Deming took over as head coach for the 1969 and '70 seasons and led the Bulls to wins over Boston College and Villanova in 1969. In 1970, ABC-TV regionally televised a 16-0 UB victory over Holy Cross at Rotary Field in the only game in UB history to be broadcast from Buffalo by a major network.

The black day in UB football history came in January of 1971 when due to expenses and the political climate on campus, football was dropped as a varsity sport.

In the fall of 1977, with the support of students, alumni and administration, UB restarted its football program with head coach Bill Dando at the reins. UB played four games in that first season, playing RIT to a 7-7 tie in its very first game back, the last tie in UB school history.

The Bulls built back to respectability quickly and did not have a losing season from 1980-1984, posting a 30-21 record.

In 1985, UB moved to the greener pastures of the Amherst Campus and the 4,000-seat UB Stadium. The Bulls defeated Villanova, 29-27, in Philadelphia in 1986 and once again talk of a possible upgrade of UB's program was alive.

New University President Steven Sample appealed to the Intercollegiate Athletics Board (IAB) in 1985 to upgrade UB to Division I-AA status. The IAB granted that request and after approval by the SUNY system in February of 1986, the "Run to Division I" had begun.

Former UB great Sam Sanders was hired in 1990 to replace Bill Dando and lead the Bulls from Division III and into the spotlight of Division I. After two rebuilding years under Sanders, the program took a hard hit when the head coach was forced to step down for medical reasons. Jim Ward, UB's offensive coordinator under Sanders, became the 20th head coach of the University at Buffalo's football program in 1992.

Under the direction of Athletic Director Nelson E. Townsend with the strong support of University President William R. Greiner, UB completed its "Run to Division I" on September 4, 1993, playing its first game at the Division I level in more than 20 years against the University of Maine. UB unveiled its $22 million, 16,500-seat UB Stadium on the Amherst Campus, site of the 1993 World University Games. In front of 14,179 fans, the Bulls put on quite a show, taking the lead with 51 seconds remaining in the contest. Maine spoiled UB's return, however, scoring a last-second touchdown to earn a 31-27 win.

In January of 1995, the Bulls came full circle when they hired UB alum Craig Cirbus ('80), who had spent the previous 11 years as an assistant under legendary coach Joe Paterno at Penn State.

A few months later, the Bulls wowed Western New York when they announced that they would be heading to Division I-A and the Mid-American Conference in 1999.

The 1996 season will go down as one of the finest in school history. The Bulls finished 8-3 on the season, earning the first Top 25 ranking in school history and earning Cirbus I-AA Independent National Coach of the Year honors. In addition, three Bulls (Ed Ellis, Craig Guest and Gerald Carlson) signed NFL contracts with Ellis being picked in the 4th round by the New England Patriots.

In 1999, UB rejoined the ranks of major college football with its entrance into the Mid-American Conference. The Bulls were back in the big-time for the first time in nearly 30 years.

The Bulls earned their first Division I-A victory in 30 years on September 23, 2000 when they nipped Bowling Green, 20-17, at UB Stadium. Buffalo would go on to defeat Kent State and finish 2-4 in the MAC East in 2000.

On November 30, 2000 Athletic Director Bob Arkeilpane announced the hiring of Jim Hofher as the 22nd head football coach in UB history. Hofher brought with him to Buffalo 22 years of Division I coaching experience, including stints as an assistant at Tennessee, Syracuse and North Carolina and eight years as head coach at Cornell University.

On December 16, 2005 Athletic Director Warde Manuel announced that Turner Gill, who was part of three national championships as a coach at the University of Nebraska and a Heisman Trophy finalist as a player, agreed to a five-year contract to become the 23rd head football coach at the University at Buffalo. In his first season with the Bulls, UB scored 220 points, the most by a Buffalo team since moving to I-A.

Buffalo had its most successful season since returning to the Division I-A ranks in 2007. The Bulls finished the year 5-7 overall and 5-3 in the Mid-American Conference for a share of the East Division regular season title. Turner Gill was named MAC Coach of the Year and a UB record eight players were named to the All-Conference Team. Junior quarterback Drew Willy completed a school-record 258 passes and had the highest pass efficiency rating in school history and sophomore running back James Starks became the Bulls' first 1,000-yard rusher in the I-A era with 1,103 yards.

On December 5, 2008 the Bulls defeated 12th-ranked and undefeated Ball State to win the MAC Championship for the first time in school history.

The Bulls had an 8-6 record in 2008. The eight wins were the most in the Bulls' Division I-A era and one shy of the school record for wins in a season.

The 2008 season featured one of the most explosive offenses in school history. Gill, who handled the play calling, commanded an offense that scored a school-record 424 points. Quarterback Drew Willy threw for a school-record 3,304 yards and 25 touchdowns, running back James Starks ran for a school-record 1,333 yards and 16 touchdowns and wideout Naaman Roosevelt established school records of 104 receptions, 1,402 yards and 13 touchdowns.

The Bulls played in their first ever bowl game when they faced off against Connecticut in the 2009 International Bowl.

The Bulls finished 2009 season 5-7 and featured an offense that averaged 405 yards per game - the highest average in UB's Division I-A era. Numerous Bulls wrapped up record-breaking careers. Although he missed the entire season with a shoulder injury, Starks finished his career as the school record holder for rushing (3,140 yards) and rushing touchdowns (34). He was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the sixth round of the NFL Draft. Naaman Roosevelt set the school record for receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,551) and signed with the Buffalo Bills.

Jeff Quinn was hired as Buffalo's 24th head coach on December 22, 2010. Quinn has produced record-breaking offenses throughout his 27-year college coaching tenure and has won conference and national championships at his last three stops, including five conference crowns in the past eight seasons. He most recently spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator at Cincinnati.

In 2010, Davonte Shannon broke the school record for career tackles with 461 enroute to being named to the All-MAC First Team for the fourth straight year. He became just the fourth player in the history of the Mid-American Conference to earn that distinction. Cornerback Josh Thomas was selected in the fifth round (143rd pick) of the NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

in 2011, Branden Oliver rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards and added 13 touchdowns en route to earning first-team All-MAC honors. Chazz Anderson transfered from Cincinnati to play his final season at Buffalo. The UB signal caller threw for 2,454 yards and 11 touchdowns on the year. He set a single-game school record with 35 completions against Northern Illinois (10/22). Khalil Mack ranked third in the nation in tackles for loss with 20.5.

The Bulls had a strong finish to the 2012 campaign by winning three of the final four games. Using a plethora of running backs, the Bulls rushed for 2,120 yards - the third highest total in school history. Khalil Mack was named All-MAC First Team for the second straight year in a season in which he set the school record for career tackles for loss (56) and forced fumbles (11).

UB had one of its finest seasons as a Division I-A program in 2013. The Bulls went 8-5, including a 6-2 record in the MAC. It was their most MAC wins since joining the conference in 1999. UB advanced to the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl for just its second ever bowl appearance in school history.

Branden Oliver finished his career as the Bulls all-time leading rusher with 4,409 yards. Alex Neutz broke the school record for career touchdown receptions with 31. And then there was Khalil Mack. The All-American linebacker broke the NCAA record for career forced fumbles with 16 and tied the NCAA mark for career takles for loss with 75. He went on to become the Bulls' highest drafted player in school history as he was picked fifth overall by the Oakland Raiders in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Anthone Taylor rushed for 1,403 yards in 2014 - the second-highest single-season effort in school history. Lance Leipold was named the 25th UB football head coach on Dec. 1, 2014. Kristjan Sokoli was selected in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks.

The Bulls went 5-7 under first-year head coach Lance Leipold. Quarterback Joe Licata capped off his stellar career by setting nine different school passing records, including career passing yards (9,485) and career touchdown passes (76).

In 2016, Jordan Johnson rushed for over 1,000 yards on the season, including a school-record 282 yards in a game vs. Akron. Linebacker Khalil Hodge finished the season with 123 tackles , just two shy of the FBS-era record for a single season.

The Bulls won the final three games of the 2017 season to finish 6-6 and earn bowl eligibility for just the third time in school history. In his first season at UB, junior wide receiver Anthony Johnson burst onto the scene with 76 catches for 1,356 yards and a school-record 14 touchdowns. Linebacker Khalil Hodge set an FBS-era record with 154 tackles on the year.

Linebacker Khalil Hodge ranked second in the nation in tackles with 154 - a school record in the Bulls' FBS era.

A DIFFERENT TIME IN A DIFFERENT WORLD

Looking back at one of the most influential football teams in University history 50 years later

By Alex Rubin and Stephen Marth

"Picture Buffalo as it is today…and then forget about all of the suburbs - they weren't there. The nightlife downtown, you had a big nightclub called the Town Casino, you had all of these theaters downtown, it was just so different than what exists today that you can't even imagine."

Stanley Kowalski, left guard for the 1958 Bulls football team, said the above reminiscing about his memories of the city of Buffalo. While this image of Buffalo remains dear to him, another issue clouds his memories – the scandal of the 1958 Tangerine Bowl.

The 1958 football season at the University at Buffalo was one of extreme highs and even more extreme lows; marked by an appearance on the Ed Sullivan show after an 8-1 season, sullied by racism and segregation.

After finishing the season as the Lambert Cup champions, Buffalo was invited to play in the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, FL. However, after accepting the invitation, University Chancellor Clifford Furnas, along with the entire team, made the decision to not play in the game; they learned that their two black players, Willie Evans and Mike Wilson, would not be allowed to play as per the request of the hosting school district.

In a statement made about his decision, Furnas said, "They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

Being a member of the football team made Evans, the star running back for the team, a hot commodity around campus. The fact that he was one of very few minorities on campus made it tough for him at times.

"It was subtle. I didn't have the luxury of cutting class, because having made a little name for myself in athletics, professors knew who I was. Not to mention, I was usually the only black person in the class," Evans said.

One reason Kowalski believes there was not blatant racism within the team was that several players grew up without having relationships with minorities. Since there was no history of racism in their background, Kowalski believes it allowed the players to come in with open minds towards both Wilson and Evans.

"I grew up in a small mill town in Pennsylvania… we didn't have any blacks living there, so you didn't have prejudice built up ingrained in your head by your parents or your uncles," Kowalski said.

In the first game of the season, the Bulls were to face Harvard, one of the most respected teams in the nation at the time. Evans remembers this win being the first sign that the team could do something special.

"If you went back the year before, we were 5-4. I can remember vividly our coach saying before our last game versus Temple, he wanted us to win our last game so we could go in to the next season with a win, when we played Harvard," Evans said. "[Beating Harvard] got us off to a good start – it was a different feeling. We had no notion of winning the Lambert Cup, we didn't even know about it. We just wanted to win football games."

According to Kowalski, the Bulls were in a unique position due to the fact that they were the only team in or near Buffalo. This gathered media attention.

"Most of the teams that played football after the Second World War had already dropped it," Kowalski said. "We were the only game in town and the papers started to give us all kinds of press, which was kind of unique."

"It was a big deal for Buffalo at the time," Evans concurred. "Blacks weren't included in the paper at all for any reason, yet we were on the front page. When we were coming back from Harvard, the pilot told us that there were a couple thousand students waiting for us at the airport. It was great support."

It was not a coincidence that the Bulls were peaking in 1958; the senior class was the first class to play all four years on scholarship, meaning the team was as cohesive as ever and also had as much talent as possible. While Kowalski understands that football has changed immensely in the past 50 years, he is proud of the accomplishments the team made, and how they stuck together in the face of adversity that followed the end of the regular season.

"We stand very high, simply because of the celebrity that was given to us, that opportunity that we had to make a mark…we were the first team to go into the UB Hall of Fame," Kowalski said. "Obviously the whole game of football has changed so dramatically…we couldn't compare to the teams that are put on the field today, but at that time, we were a very respectable team."

In the final game of the regular season, the Bulls defeated Bucknell 38-0 to earn their first Lambert Cup. This game was especially important for Kowalski, who played in front of friends, family and his old high school football coach. Kowalski did not disappoint, returning an interception for a touchdown en route to Buffalo's victory.

After the victory, Buffalo's co-captains Nicholas Bottini and Louis Reale appeared on the Ed Sullivan show to accept the Lambert Cup, a trophy for the top team of the "Eastern Small Colleges."

"They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

Willie Evans averaged 7.6 yards per carry for 530 yards in 1958

Along with the victory came an invite to the Tangerine Bowl. When news broke about the Bulls being invited to their first bowl game, the team was skeptical, as it would have meant missing a week of classes and work. Several players on the team were married and needed to continue to work to support their family. After much debate however, the team decided to accept the invite.

The decision was quickly changed when Buffalo was informed that if the team was to play, they would have to do so without Evans or Wilson, who were both black.

"Our initial feelings were good. We never even thought about playing in a bowl game. The issue of race didn't even come up in the beginning," Evans said. "The only thing I recall is the first meeting we had where we decided we wanted to go as a team. I found out (about the racism issue) as I walked out of the house after Thanksgiving, and a neighbor said to me 'I guess they don't want you black boys down there…' I got the newspaper and there was my picture on the front page of the Courier Express with Mike Wilson, outlining the position Chancellor Furnas took on the issue, where if myself and Mike couldn't play, UB would not take part in the contest."

The field that had been rented for the game belonged to an Orlando school district that had a strict rule that blacks and whites could not play on the field at the same time, the team discovered. In response, the Bulls held a second meeting where they decided not to play in the game if Evans and Wilson would not be allowed to play. While the Elks Club, the sponsor of the game, offered to find another field, Chancellor Furnas was the man charged with making the ultimate decision.

"Chancellor Furnas was a prominent individual… his credentials were impeccable," Kowalski said. "He was a physicist. He was an Olympic sprinter. He was the assistant secretary of defense for research and development in the Eisenhower administration… there wasn't anybody capable of criticizing him. The way he put it was he would not demean any of his players, or even present an opportunity for anyone to be uncomfortable in the Florida setting."

As the image of Buffalo's first bowl came and went, Evans carried the experience of racism with him after college. It followed him to the professional level, as he entered the American Football League. Evans had never visited any of the southern states.

"I had a chip on my shoulder from the experience. It was a matter of letting it beat you down or not. I saw it as an opportunity to show my athleticism. I eventually was drafted by the Buffalo Bills, which was also an experience. It was my first time playing with white ball players from the South. There were players I never spoke to, and they never spoke to me, yet we were 'teammates.' That hardened my attitude about the idea of racism. Our coach was from the South, and I didn't appreciate being called 'boy.' He called everybody 'boy.' I ended up getting released right before the season began, but I wasn't too upset about it."

Since his playing days, Evans has remained active in the University community, holding several positions on the Alumni board and serving on the committees that brought both Athletic Director Warde Manuel and President Simpson to Buffalo.

"One reason why I'm still with the university is the way things have come," Evans said. "Diversity is something that has caught on with the campus. We're not there yet, but it has improved significantly since I was here. There are expectations that exist now that were not around when I was a student."

Discrimination Is Issue

UB Turns Down Bid To Tangerine Bowl

By RAY RYAN

The University of Buffalo, unswervingly loyal to two of its players, last night turned down an invitation to play its first bowl football game—the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla., on Dec. 27.

The issue was discrimination. Two of Buffalo's players are Negroes. Willie Evans, a left halfback, led the Bulls in rushing yardage during their highly successful 8-1 season. Mike Wilson is a reserve end.

The fault did not lie with the Tangerine Bowl committee or its chairman, Jack Morgan, or the Orlando Elks Club, which promotes the game for the benefit of crippled children.

The committee tendered the bid on Monday, Nov. 24, with the full knowledge that Buffalo has two Negro players. Subsequently, the committee approached the Orlando High School Athletic Assn., which controls the stadium which is the site of the game, with a request it be allowed to rent the stadium.

At the same time, the committee requested that the Athletic Assn. waive a clause in the standard contract which stipulates there be no intermingling of the races in athletic contests in the stadium. This request was refused.

The Tangerine Bowl committee voted—104 to 4—in favor of Buffalo coming to Orlando, even in view of this development. These men wanted to see Buffalo play football.

... Buffalo backs them

But the only other possible playing site in Orlando is a practice field around which 3,000 or 4,000 bleacher seats could be installed.

Morgan said that, if Buffalo desired to make the trip, the Elks would guarantee there would be no discrimination. Although the Elks undoubtedly would take a tremendous financial loss (the Tangerine Bowl seats 13,500), they stood ready to live up to every financial term contained in the bid to the Buffalo athletic director, Jim Peelle, last Monday.

Dr. Clifford C. Furnas, chancellor of the University of Buffalo, was informed of the Orlando High School Athletic

With the fifth pick in the 2014 NFL Draft, the Oakland Raiders select...

Khalil Mack was the fifth overall selection by the Oakland Raiders in the 2014 NFL Draft, becoming UB's highest-ever draft pick and the second-highest selected player in the history of the Mid-American Conference. It capped a stellar career for the All-American linebacker who was the MAC Defensive Player of the Year and the Jack Lambert Award recipient in 2013.
